SEPTEMBER PROGRAM REPORT

Stewart Lee and Glen Carter Master Anglers

The VAC Master Anglers Stuart and Glen shown in the picture above shared the club history of the angler ratings and how they were developed. They reviewed in great detail the Angling rules and IGFA rules of the club. They explained to reach a rating of Saltwater/Freshwater expert or Master Angler you have to get out of your comfort zone. The ratings force you to catch fish on spinning, plug, general, and fly casting.

Everyone enjoyed stories of their fishing adventures chasing certain species to accomplish their angler rating. They both agreed the charter captains in Florida are more adapt to allow you to fish by IGFA rules. That is good information for members trying to accomplish angler ratings.

These two gentlemen have a wealth of knowledge and experience, if you have a question about fishing or what it takes to become an Expert or Master Angler contact Stuart or Glen.
